

Barbara Brangan Bio

Barbara is a mentor and best-selling author with a deep passion for guiding women to live their purpose to its fullest potential.

Barbara has been on a wild ride looking everywhere to find her purpose. This ride involved fun detours via regular appearances on Psychic TV, studying emotional intelligence, energy science, subconscious fears, and the art of intuitive mentoring. She eventually found her purpose mirrored back to her in Human Design, a logical and energetic system that expresses how unique and amazing we each are and how the universe responds in support when we stand in the gloriousness of being different. She advocates that as we do this, we activate dormant gifts and collectively create a positive ripple effect. She shares Human Design, often a complex system, in a fun light-hearted manner, via her free reports, courses and deep dives. Barbara is unafraid of carving a new path and offers Human Design using 13-sign sidereal astrology, where astronomy and astrology unite, bringing us back into sync with Gaia and the Universe.

Barbara was born in Ireland however now calls Sydney home. The beach is her happy place. She has a quirky sense of humour which she infuses into all of her work.
